SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. The recent successes of the Greek National Army have seriously hindered the reorganization of the Communist organization of Athens (KOA).
2. The recruiting of new members in accordance with the decisions of the Fourth Plenum has failed miserably. The trade union Achitides of government employees and the Achtis of the public utilities enterprises had not succeeded in recruiting even one new member from April to the present.
3. KOA has received important reinforcement, however, in the trade union sector, particularly in the textile mills. The workers in these factories have been organized in triads dependent upon the factory committees consisting of Party members. These committees are camouflaged as committees seeking economic rights et cetera.
4. The existing penetrations (fraxial) in the unions belonging to the Greek General Confederation of Labor (G.S.E.E.) have been ordered to develop especially energetic activity among the trade unions.
5. The Self-Defense Groups of KOA have been dissolved and are being reformed on a decentralized and independent basis. They are reported to have been ordered to execute centralized (sic) tasks.
6. An effort to revive the "National-local" (liaisons) also failed and the central responsible officer of these organizations was censured because he had not succeeded in inducing those from the provinces to undertake such work in Athens.
